高志丹 國際武術聯合會主席

Gao Zhidan President of the International Wushu Federation In this vibrant summer, wushu talents from all over Asia gather in Macao, an energetic city of sports, to celebrate in the grand opening of the 10th Asian Wushu Championships. On behalf of the International Wushu Federation (IWUF), I would like to extend my sincere greetings and warm welcome to all the athletes, coaches, judges, media and wushu friends!

Wushu is an extensive and profound sport with a long history. Thanks to the joint efforts of the international wushu family including the Asian wushu community over these years, wushu has flourished around the world. The IWUF now has 160 member associations across five continents; wushu has become an official sport of the Dakar 2026 Youth Olympic Games; Tai Chi has been inscribed by UNESCO on the Representative List of the Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity.

As an important pillar of the IWUF, the Wushu Federation of Asia (WFA) has been forging ahead with an enterprising spirit since its foundation in 1987. It has successfully promoted the inclusion of wushu programs into the Asian Games, the Southeast Asian Games, the South Asian Games and other major sports events, making outstanding contributions to the thrive and development of wushu in Asia and beyond.

After successfully hosting of the 7th Asian Championships in 2008 and the 11th Asian Junior Wushu Championships in 2023, Macao once again embrace the opportunity of hosting the 10th Asian Championships, which has attracted hundreds of wushu players from all over Asia. The competition has injected fresh vitality into the sustainable development of Asian Wushu and serves as an exchange platform for Asian wushu athletes to showcase their abilities and surpass themselves.

Under the strong leadership of Mr. Chan Weng Kit, President of the WFA, and the members of its Executive Board, Wushu General Association of Macau (WGAM) and all the staff members of the Organizing Committee are fully committed to the event organization with responsibility and dedication, leading to a smooth and orderly preparation. Here, I would like to extend my warmest congratulations and heartfelt thanks to the WFA, the WGAM, the Organizing Committee and all Asian member associations!

I wish the 10th Asian Wushu Championships a great success, and wish all the athletes the best of luck in the Championships and a pleasant stay in Macao. Let's enjoy the passion and joy!

As the autumn breeze brings the harvest of spring's efforts, we embrace the "2024 SJM 10th Asian Wushu Championships" with excitement and anticipation. On behalf of the Wushu Federation of Asia ("WFA"), I would like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to SJM Resorts, S. A. Lastly, a warm welcome and sincere thanks to all participating teams and every friend who has graced this grand occasion.

Since its establishment in 1987, the WFA has shouldered the historical mission of promoting the development of Wushu in Asia.
